

Mustard Seed Ranch

The Mustard Seed Ranch board members recommended that the BMC needed to do the initial marketing for the organization. To help the ranch – an organization serving children who have been neglected, abused, orphaned – the center developed a video presentation to be shown at fund-raising events. The presentation was so successful that the ranch was able to collect nearly half a million dollars in a single evening.

